Meet the Speakers:

12:30 – 1:30 pm

David Cooper ~ Social Media & Litigation

David Cooper joined Fisher Patterson in 1996 after serving two years as research attorney to the Honorable Robert J. Lewis, Jr., of the Kansas Court of Appeals. Cooper's practice focuses on litigation of governmental liability, civil and constitutional rights, and employment matters. Cooper has also presented widely on issues ranging from Kansas laws on open records and open meetings, governmental liability and immunities, civil rights litigation and employment litigation.

1:40 – 2:40 pm

Sara Rust-Martin ~ Ethics relating to Cybersecurity

Sara Rust-Martin directs all aspects of the KBA Sections and the Law Office Management Assistance Program (LOMAP). Ever the professional, Sara can be lured into the inane, usually with Meg Wickham in tow. There may be video of her dance moves. Sara helps design and implement new CLE programs and offers professional development programming. She works with the Law Practice Management Committee, authors and editors to coordinate production of law practice guides and newsletters; she guides and assists section leaders and section members to plan events, publish books, recruit new leadership and members, and provide section outreach. Sara is also a legal advisor to staff.

2:50 – 3:50 pm

Jon Trotter ~ Identity Theft & Cyber Crimes

Jon Trotter joined the Consumer Protection Division as an Assistant Attorney General in September of 2017. Jon previously served as a law clerk in the Division in the summer of 2016. He recently graduated from Liberty University School of Law in Lynchburg, Va. He received his bachelor's degree in legal studies from Washburn University in 2014. Jon is a native of Downs, Kansas, and graduated from Lakeside High School. He and his wife Amy were recently married and live in Topeka, Kansas. Jon has previously worked for U.S. Senator Jerry Moran and U.S. Representative Lynn Jenkins. He currently handles legal issues involving consumer scams and fraudulent business practices, particularly in the roofing industry.

Students enrolled in Washburn Legal Studies classes may be eligible to receive extra credit points for attending the Mini-Seminar. Present your certificate of attendance to your instructor to see if you may receive extra credit.

General Information

Pre-Registration:

Pre-registration is recommended. Walk-in registrations will be accepted at the seminar at the registration price, if space is available. If you have not pre-registered, please call the day before the seminar to confirm that there have been no schedule changes. Call Abigail Emery, CRP, KPA District II Director at (785) 274-9040.

Cancellations:

If your schedule changes and you contact us at least 48-hours before the start of the seminar, we will offer you a full tuition refund. No refunds will be given for cancellations made after the 48-hour deadline. However, the seminar materials, if any, will be emailed to the email address on your registration form. If you desire, you may send another person to take your place at the seminar.

Format:

This seminar will be presented in a live, lecture-style format.

Tape/Video Recording:

There is no recording of this program.

Accommodations:

To ensure that your experience will be as pleasant as possible please notify Abigail Emery, CRP, at 785-274-9040 at least one (1) week in advance to request any special accommodations. You may identify yourself to Seminar staff the day of the event and every reasonable attempt to accommodate your needs will be made.

Continuing Education Credit

Application for Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credit has been submitted to NFPA (National Federation of Paralegal Associations) for this seminar. When approved CLE for Paralegals should include 3.00 hours NFPA. A certificate of participation will be issued to those paralegals/legal assistants wishing to submit "CLE hours" to any other organization.
